

Gatwick Flagship Chapter

Good morning ladies and gentlemen, Karen Hibbart, Freelance Design & Graphics, we are a local design and artwork company based in Warninglid, specialising in producing design and artwork for all of your company requirements.

Freelance Design & Graphics have over 25 years experience in their field and are extremely competitive, offering the quality of an Agency, at Out of Town Prices, not only on your design but your ongoing artwork too.

Are you starting a new business and looking for a new corporate identity, producing a product catalogue and don't know where to start, presenting at an exhibition or want your company fleet vehicles to have a corporate livery?

From start to finish we can help and we can even do the photography as well.

So...Who do you know who:-

- works in a Marketing company and who outsources design and artwork
- are about to launch a new product and need promotional literature or a catalogue
- Requires a friendly, reliable, design and artwork company

We are a professional company, passionate about what we do and will offer advice in what will make your business stand out from the rest.

Think of the butterfly

Freelance Design & Graphics,

"Taking you under our wing"
